An exceptional 19th century French Charles X st. ormolu and porphyry statue of a soldier and a boy. The soldier in his uniform and cape is resting on a tree stump while holding a walking staff with one hand. Next to the soldier, a boy in classic attire, holds the soldier's helmet while the soldier rests his arm on the boy's shoulder. Raised on a rectangular moulded porphyry base, with a highly chased foliate surround, the ormolu statue displays exquisite details and superb quality chasings throughout. All original satin and burnished gilt.
