A sensational and high quality Dutch 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu, ash wood and ebony mirror. The original beveled mirror plate is framed within an attractive and most decorative floral and foliate ormolu band decorated with additional twisted rope like designs. An impressive outer ash wood border is flanked by elegant ebony inlays and is adorned with luxuriant foliate and floral ormolu mounts at the centers and corners. An additional and most elegant ormolu band moves along the outer edge of the mirror and is fitted within the mottled ebony frame.
