A most handsome and extremely decorative French 19th century Rustic st. dark oak, wrought iron, and leather bellow/coffee table. The large scale bellow is raised by a fine front wrought iron support with nailheads and two square oak feet at the back. At the center is the original leather also retaining all original nail heads with circular handles at each side with striking wrought iron elements and nozzle at the front. All original rich warm patina throughout. This bellow would make an extremely decorative coffee table, with or without the addition of a glass top.
