An outstanding French 19th century Charles X period rosewood, maple and marble console with one drawer. The console is raised by handsome carved paw feet below a most decorative concave, arbalest shaped bottom tier with beautiful masterfully inlaid floral marquetry. Each finely scrolled support displays striking floral marquetry. At the frieze is a central drawer decorated with additional inlaid marquetry. Above is a carved Les Oves border below the original white Carrara marble top.
