An elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and Sèvres porcelain centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by an exquisite oval shaped ormolu base with richly chased seashells and beautiful foliate movements in a satin and burnished finish. The base displays a central fitted colorful Sèvres porcelain plaque with elegant floral designs. Lovely scrolled foliate ormolu movements lead up each side centered by a fine ormolu female mask.

Beautiful richly detailed and most charming birds are perched on each handle centering the striking Sèvres porcelain bowl. The bowl displays lovely colorful foliate designs framed within a foliate ormolu border. All original gilt throughout.
