A lovely small scale French 19th century Neo-Classical st. patinated bronze and ormolu tazza. The tazza is after a model of the renowned Albani vase and is raised on a black Belgium marble circular base below the fluted socle. The gadroon shaped patinated bronze urn is detailed with eight fine Bacchus masks. At each side are intertwined ormolu handles joined by foliate garlands with large leaves. At the top is the oval designed border and the tazza is finished on the inside. All original patina throughout.
