A most elegant French 19th mid century Louis XVI st. tulipwood and ormolu bookcase. The bookcase is raised by a decorative tulipwood base framed within a kingwood border. The bookshelf has three sections, each separated by fine quarter veneered herringbone design parquetry. The center section elegantly protrudes forward and the sides are decorated with rich quarter veneered panels. All the beautiful and original shelves throughout are adjustable. At the top of each section are original Vert Patricia marble fitted within striking mottled ormolu galleries. All original warm patina and gilt throughout.
