A superb quality French mid 18th Century Louis XV period walnut commode with bronze hardware. The serpentine shaped commode is elegantly raised by cabriole legs which lead to the wonderful scalloped frieze. The commode has two large drawers below two smaller size drawers at the top. Each drawer is designed with recessed panels with a mottled border flanking a central circular carved reserve. The drawers are adorned by their original patinated bronze handles and keyhole escutcheons. The sides are designed with three horizontal recessed mottled panels all below the top walnut shelf. Rich and warm patina throughout.
