A wonderful pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. kingwood and tulipwood side tables with ormolu mounts and their original marble tops. Each side table is raised by cabriole legs with elegant pierced ormolu sabots and impressive richly chased top corner mounts in a satin and burnished finish. At the center is a drop down door decorated with a foliate ormolu pull and captivating sunburst marquetry. A fitted brown leather pull out writing surface with an ormolu knob is below the original thick Sienna marble top.

These side tables are also finished to the rear thus can be placed in the center of a room and presentable from all sides. With their matching pair of chests Item #7727.
