A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Blue Turquin marble and ormolu urns. Each urn is raised by a square marble base with a mottled border and an ormolu satin and burnished socle pedestal with a finely chased berried laurel band. The urn is decorated with handsome and detailed rams heads at either side joined by a charming and richly chased swaging floral garland. Above is a tied ormolu band and foliate pattern with an impressive ormolu acorn finial at the top.
