An elegant pair of French 19th Century Louis XVI st. ormolu lamps. The pair are raised by four elongated topie shaped legs and a central back wrought iron support. The front frieze with a half-round protruding pierced design is flanked by fluted panels. At each end and below the finials are richly chased lion heads. At the center is an oval platform bordered by beads and surrounding an urn with an eternal flame. The urn is raised by animal legs ending in hooves and a spiral tapering central fut. All original gilding though out.
