A stunning and unique pair of Italian 19th century Baroque st. wall mounted mirrored giltwood Étagères. Each retains all of their original mirror plates and are centered by a wonderfully executed and richly carved scrolled foliate bottom design on a mirrored background. Leading up are four fluted supports with finely carved scrolled acanthus leaves and extremely decorative detailed seashell reserves among striking scrolled movements. At the center are two glass shelves with a mirrored background. Above are richly carved foliate scrolled reserves. The impressive royal top crown also with an exquisite mirrored background and top acanthus leaf finial. All original gilt throughout.
