A spectacular and monumentally scaled pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood mirrors. Each mirror is raised by an elegant straight base and retains their original mirror plate framed within a fine wrap around mottled border. At the bottom corners are lovely richly carved scrolled foliate designs with charming intertwined branches with richly carved blooming flowers leading upwards to the stunning pierced top crown. The top crown displays an impressive array of luxuriant pierced scrolled foliate designs centered by a wonderful seashell reserve above a swaging blooming floral garland and flanked by superb scrolls and lovely flowers. All original gilt throughout.
