A most impressive grand scale pair of Italian mid 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood armchairs. Each armchair is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine scrolled feet and lovely acanthus leaf carvings. The arbalest shaped frieze are centered by striking seashells flanked by finely carved laurel branches. The scrolled cushioned arm supports display an attractive mottled design and lead up to upholstered back supports which are also finished on both sides. Above, are striking top central reserves with crowns set on hammered backgrounds and flanked by scrolled foliate movements and flowers.
