A sensational pair of Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. four arm candelabras. Each candelabra is raised by a faux painted marble square base. The mecca and patinated black urn support the four 'S' scrolled beaded arms which are joined by glass swaging garlands amidst hanging prisms. The scrolled arms end with the original carved bobeches. The central fut is decorated with beads and sprays with hanging glass prisms, topped with a glass dagger. Wonderful proportions.
