A beautiful and extremely charming pair of Italian mid 18th century Venetian st. patinated wood, giltwood and hand painted chairs. Each chair is raised by most elegant tapered cabriole legs with finely carved feet, lovely floral designs and large acanthus leaves at the corners. Each leg is connected by a decorative 'H' shaped stretcher with a fine giltwood fillet extending along the border. The scalloped shaped frieze also displays a fine giltwood fillet and stunning finely detailed hand painted flowers with exceptional vivid colors which also extend along each side. The pierced back supports display beautiful scalloped shapes with additional charming and intricately detailed hand painted flowers with an exceptional oblong medallion at the center. All original patina and gilt throughout.
