An exquisite Russian 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu, crystal and ox blood red glass twelve arm chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a stunning bottom ormolu foliate reserve which leads up to the striking ox blood red hand blown glass element. The central tier displays beautiful swan neck arms and foliate candle cups each connected by swaging crystal garlands. Above are remarkable and richly chased sphinxes flanking a palmette and cut crystal prism shaped pendants. Leading up the crystal garlands is a majestic top crown with finely chased palmettes and additional prism shaped cut crystal pendants.
