A charming and most elegant set of six French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood dining chairs. Each chair is raised by fine circular tapered fluted legs with lovely topie shaped feet. Above each leg is a charming richly carved block rosette flanking the mottled frieze decorated with a wrap around twisted rope band. The seat and back support each retain all of their original intact canning with beautiful lattice designs framed within additional twisted rope borders. All original patina throughout.

Seat Height: 18"
