A charming and high quality English 19th century Neo-Classical st. wedgwood and mecca decorative wall plaque. The striking plaque depicts a jovial outside gathering with a charming cherub at the center holding the eternal flame while standing next to the beautiful Diana the Huntress draped in wonderfully executed period attire. To the right are winged cherubs in a chariot being pulled by handsome horses passing through an arch. To the left is a man falling into a mythological god's arms with a dog at his side. In the background are grand trees draped with a hunter's spoils. Wonderful details and charming subject matter.
