A stunning and large scale Italian 18th century giltwood mirror with all the original mirror plates throughout. At the base is a decorative mottled giltwood band with impressive and wonderfully carved foliate designs at each corner where an old sticker from the world renowned antiques dealer Accorsi in Torino is displayed with its inventory number of 5057. At the center is a beautiful and richly carved array of intertwined foliate movements which lead to a magnificent pierced central top crown of additional intricately carved foliate scrolls.

Pietro Accorsi Antichita was one of the most important antique galleries and collection in Italy that was located in Torino. Now there is a foundation in his name.
