A stunning Italian 19th century Venetian mirror with hand blown cobalt blue glass. The original central mirror plate is framed within its stunning original mirrored borders which display a recessed circular pattern and a fine beaded designed edge. Leading outwards, at all four sides, are the beautiful and captivating hand blown cobalt blue glass with detailed and most charming etched foliate and floral patterns. The outer sides display the same impressive glass borders with beaded designs while each corner displays intricate mirror plate reserves of leaves and rich decorative scrolls.
