A stunning and large scale Italian 19th century white Carrara marble of Venus de Milo. She is wonderfully sculpted with striking proportions and attention to detail. Venus de Milo is an ancient Greek statue created between 130 and 100 BC and believed to depict Aphrodite, the Greek goddess of love and beauty. She is considered one of the most famous works of ancient Greek sculpture and sculpted slightly larger than life size. She was named after the Greek island of Milos where she was discovered.
