A most elegant French 19th century Louis Philippe period Mahogany and ormolu dining table. The table is raised by six exceptional reeded tapered legs with ormolu fitted sabots and casters. The straight apron displays an elegant wrap around mottled fillet. The top showcases the beautiful warm mahogany grain and retains its three original leaves. Each extension measures 22.25" and the table becomes oval in shape when closed. All original warm patina throughout.
Length w/o extensions: 40"
