An impressive pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Brèche Violette marble and ormolu casolettes. Each casolette is raised on a square marble base with concave corners and four ormolu feet. The center ormolu pedestal socle with a twisted design is decorated with an elegant berried laurel band below and foliate acanthus leaves chasing above. At each side of the casolettes are richly chased satyrs joined by a swaging garland and a central pierced foliate band. At the top of each removable lid is an ormolu acorn finial. All original gilt.
