A handsome and decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. creamy gray patinated three drawer commode. The commode is raised by square tapered fluted legs below a fluted column with a top and bottom carved rosette. The front bottom fluted frieze is below the three drawers with a central raised circular design flanked by rectangular raised panels with corner diamond reserves. Each drawer with their original patinated brass drawer pulls and key hole escutcheons. In between each drawer is an intertwined carved design which is then repeated under the top faux painted marble top with an elegant mottled border edge.
