A striking and handsome French 19th century Napoleon III period Louis XVI st. ebony and ormolu desk armchair with unusually wide seats. The armchair is raised on four circular tapered fluted legs below richly chased ormolu recessed block rosettes. At the straight frieze are charming carvings of patterns and a central swaging floral garland. The cushioned arms lead up to the finely carved back decorated with rosette ormolu mounts and two ormolu acorn finials above. Seat Height: 20"
