A striking and high quality French mid 19th century Napoleon III st. ebony and marquetry cabinet with ormolu mounts. Raised on square feet with ormolu bands beneath corner blocks with ormolu floral mounts flanking a central scrolling foliate ormolu mount and top ormolu border. The central door with ormolu keyhole escutcheon has an inset panel with high quality exoticwood floral detailed marquetry with egg and dart ormolu border, and the original interior shelves. At either side of the door is an ormolu rosette bordered by ormolu beading and on the two sides of the cabinet, are large wonderfully chased scrolling foliate ormolu mounts. All below the thick white Carrara marble top with egg and dart ormolu border.
