A most decorative and very unique Italian 19th century Baroque st. giltwood and glass cocktail table. The table is raised by richly carved X shaped supports with striking scrolled movements and detailed carved foliate patterns and acanthus leaves . Each support is connected by three carved stretchers the central one displaying a fine turned foliate design and the other two with striking carved foliate movements and a central carved seashell reserve. The elegantly scalloped shaped glass top displays four ormolu rosettes.
