An impressive and very unique Italian 19th century Venetian st. patinated Walnut umbrella stand. The solid wood stand is raised by a wonderfully executed rock designed base with charming leaves and branches. The superb richly detailed monkey is sitting on the rocks holding a plate extended in front of him. He displays exceptional details in his fur and is wearing a jacket with finely carved foliate designs, a cravat around his neck, and a hat. He also displays a wonderful facial expression with striking painted eyes and bone teeth.
