A vibrant and very decorative Italian early 19th century pietra dura marble table. The table is raised on a Louis XVI patinated and giltwood support. Giltwood paw feet raise the square patinated base decorated with giltwood rosettes and laurel wreath. The urn shaped fut is adorned with giltwood ram heads on each side joined by a swaging garland and carved acanthus leaves below and above. The square pietra dura top is intricately inlaid with a variety of semi precious stones and marble including lapis and mother of pearl.
