An outstanding French 19th century 1st Empire period flamed mahogany, ormolu and fossilized stone console. The freestanding console is raised by fine bun feet and a beautiful bottom tier with a concave front and striking flamed mahogany grain. Most decorative architectural columns lead up each side with elegant baluster shaped columns accented with richly chased foliate ormolu mounts with palmettes designs. Above the straight frieze is the original gray fossilized marble top. All original gilt throughout.
