A very handsome French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu twelve arm chandelier. At the top, an impressive canopy with finial is joined by linked chains to the arms below. Extending from the fut, a fluted quiver filled with arrows, are six arms that divide and become twelve. Centered between each of the double arms is a shorter rosette centered scrolled arm beginning with a gargoyle and elegantly decorated with acanthus leaves. The double arms with twisted rope chasing, end with scalloped foliate saucers and fluted candlecups. Exceptional gilding throughout.
