A wonderful 19th century hand painted verdigris patinated three drawer chest. Raised on tapered legs with fluted design topped by rosette corner blocks joined by a straight fluted design frieze that continues on the sides. Hand painted fluted columns at each edge with draping acanthus leaves and rosette corner blocks. The chest has three wide drawers with oval pulls and keyhole escutcheons. Each side has a painted faux panel with rosettes at each corner. At the top is a spectacular faux painted Gris St. Anne like marble.
