A striking pair of 19th century Imari vases with French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu mounts, made into lamps. Each lamp is raised by a rich pierced ormolu bas with elegant foliate movements, with a hammered pattern in a satin and burnished finish. Encasing the beautiful hand painted Imari vase are richly chased intertwining ormolu handles of branches decorated with finely etched leaves and grape clusters. Shown with a cream silk shade. All original gilt.
