An exceptional and striking French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood rectangular mirror. The bold cut out design frame offers extraordinary carvings of an outside Greek key design and inside egg and dart trim. The impressive top central reserve with various musical instruments is above the luxuriant acanthus leaf garland draping the top and sides. Below the mirror plate, which is bordered by a beaded rim and rosettes, is the bottom reserve with a pair of crossed quivers, a flag, laurel branches and stalks of wheat. All original gilt and mirror plate.
