An elegant 19th century Asian export porcelain vase mounted into a lamp. The lamp is raised by a square ormolu base with concave corners. The top of the base is designed with a wonderful and decorative berried laurel band. The oblong baluster vase has a orange, gilt and black triangular motif amidst landscape scenes of Asian figures dressed in their traditional and colorful attire. The top of the vase is embellished by an ormolu cap with an egg and dart outer edge and topped with richly chased acanthus leaves.
