A superb and very unique Belgian early 19th century Regency st. flamed Mahogany and brass inlaid buffet signed Bonneels. The three door three drawer buffet is raised by most elegant circular tapered topie shaped legs with finely fitted ormolu ball feet. Above the straight frieze are three doors each showcasing the stunning flamed Mahogany grain framed within a fine mottled band and delicate most decorative inlaid brass fillets. The three drawers are also decorated in the same manner framed within a mottled border. The solid Mahogany top also showcases the beautiful wood grain and flips open upon its original hinges to reveal two fold outs securing it in place, two elegant shelves which fold down, and all original hardware.

Height Open: 59"

Jean Henri Louis Bonneels was a Belgian Ébéniste / cabinet maker born on 28 September 1805 in Dendermonde, Belgium.
