A sensational and extremely high quality complete set of four French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu four arm sconces. Each sconce is centered by a most elegant and richly chased foliate design below luxuriant leaves and a beautiful scrolled movement. Leading up are finely detailed figures of baby Bacchus with charming grapes and grape leaves. Two sconces face to the right and the other two face the left. Each of the four elegantly scrolled arms are held by the baby Bacchus and are staggered over different levels. Each are adorned with intricately detailed acanthus leaves and display fine foliate candle cups and bobeches in a warm satin and burnished finish.
