An elegant and complete set of six French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood dining chairs. The set consisting of four side chairs and two armchairs is raised by fine circular fluted legs with mottled top caps and with the back legs set at a most decorative angle. Above each leg are lovely block reserves, the front ones displaying finely carved rosettes flanking the mottled frieze. The lovely upholstered oblong shaped backs also display a most decorative mottled design with the armchairs displaying elegantly curved arms with cushioned supports. All original patina throughout.
