A fine and most charming complete set of three German 19th century KPM porcelain and ormolu garniture set. The central urn is raised by an elegant pierced ormolu base with fine foliate feet and a pierced and beaded rim. The body displays a beautiful lightly fluted design throughout with fine gold foliate patterns and colorful central scenes of young men serenading beautiful maidens. Each urn display a fine removable lid with a wonderfully executed bird perched on top. The pair of slightly smaller urns display a similar shape and design, with fine foliate designs and beautiful central hand painted scenes, framed within a gilt berried laurel band.
