An impressive and most decorative Continental early 19th century Neo-Classical st. ebonized fruitwood, giltwood and ormolu commode. The three drawer chest is raised by elegant square tapered legs below striking columns leading up each side with curved fluted foliate bottom caps and superb richly carved caryatids above. The drawers each display beautiful finely detailed ormolu rosette pulls with the two central drawers decorated with delicate inlaid wrap around foliate bands while the top drawer displays lovely scrolled foliate inlaid designs with charming cherubs at the family crest shaped keyhole escutcheon. Above a beautiful Les Oves designed giltwood band is the elegant polished ebonized fruitwood top also decorated with delicate inlaid foliate designs. All original gilt and patina throughout.
