A beautiful and most charming Country French 18th century Louis XV period walnut farm table. The table is raised by elegant cabriole legs with finely carved mottled fillets at the border which extend up each leg and along the beautiful scalloped shaped apron. One side of the table displays a single drawer while the other side displays a charming pullout, each retaining its original pulls. The table displays a superb sun bleached finish throughout highlighting the warm original patina.

Length with pullouts: 88.5"
