A lovely Country French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood and faux painted Sarrancolin marble buffet. The buffet is raised by a straight base with a fine mottled border which extends along to the elegantly curved sides. At the center are two doors with most decorative carved mottled arched designs and recessed panels with richly carved scrolled foliate designs. The doors open to reveal one shelf and all original hardware. Above is the original wonderfully executed faux painted Sarrancolin marble top. All original patina throughout.
