A striking and most unique Dutch 19th century ormolu twelve arm chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a fine inverted finial below the circular central base. The arms are on two tiers and each arm displays most decorative scrolled designs. The central finial is accented with a circular design element with scrolls above. The chain can be shortened and is held by a pierced scrolled design at each end.

Also available with companion chandelier item# 7141, sold separately.
