An elegant and high quality French 18th century Louis XV period Tulipwood, Kingwood, and ormolu side table/desk. The table is raised by slender cabriole legs with fine fitted foliate ormolu sabots and richly chased corner mounts with charming blooming flowers in a rich satin and burnished finish. The striking arbalest shaped frieze displays a superb recessed central reserve and showcases the beautiful wood grain also repeated at the back while the side displays one drawer with a remarkable pierced foliate keyhole escutcheon. Above is the fitted gold tooled leather writing surface with a striking double mottled wrap around ormolu gallery at the border.
