An elegant French 18th century Louis XV st. oak and Sarrancolin marble console. The wall mounted console is raised by fine block feet below elegant cabriole legs with richly carved acanthus leaves and charming flowers at the corners. Each leg is connected by a lovely lightly curved stretcher with a mottled design and stunning intricately detailed central foliate reserve. The pierced scalloped shaped apron displays the same most decorative mottled design and is centered by a remarkable finely carved floral and acanthus leaf reserve. Above is the original Sarrancolin marble top with a fine mottled border. All original warm patina throughout.
