A sensational and large scale French 18th century Louis XVI period patinated and giltwood Trumeau mirror. The mirror retains its original mirror plate set within a most elegant mottled band with a lovely giltwood band. At the base are beautiful scrolled Rinceau designs centering a female mask and with richly carved urns at each bottom corner. Stunning intricately detailed interlocking foliate designs and blooming flowers lead up each side on a column like background centering the sensational and most impressive top central plaque. The top plaque displays two richly carved scrolled satyrs at the center amidst additional most decorative scrolled Rinceaux designs all above a charming basket with blooming flowers and garlands. All original gilt and patina throughout.
