A unique and most decorative French 18th century Louis XVI Period patinated wood mirror. The original mirror plate is set within a patinated off white frame, and is supported from the base corners by isolated rosettes encased within quarterly etched carved blocks. Running between the etched blocks, lays a horizontal band of woven circular chain designs with rosette carvings intertwined. Surrounding the original mirror plate are wonderful layers of beaded and Coeur de Rai bands. The stunning top crown is in the shape of an urn, with lovely blooming flowers and flanked by foliate branches that drape down each side.
