A stunning French 18th century oil on canvas painting, attributed to Claude-Joseph Vernet. The wonderfully executed painting is set within its original giltwood frame decorated with beautiful richly carved scrolled foliate designs set on a fine lattice background. The painting depicts a most charming scene of fishermen and women setting up their lines in a beautiful clearing in front of a large striking rock face. In the background is a small chateau on the water with a turret amidst trees and the cloudy sky with charming birds.
