A beautiful French 18th century Regence period giltwood mirror. The mirror retains its original beveled mirror plate set within an elegant mottled and twisted ribbon border. The frame displays superb richly carved scrolled foliate designs set on an exceptional lattice background with lovely foliate and seashell reserves. The impressive top crown displays a most decorative pierced carved central woven basket with charming blooming flowers also set on a lattice design below fine seashells and a large foliate palmette top reserve. All original gilt throughout.
